

Indiana was the frontrunner in the no call lists. We do not want our law weakened by a weak federal law. Just because I may have done business with someone does not mean I want bothered at home by their salespeople. If I want something I will call them. Debi Sullivan